Burnaby Pacific Grace Church is currently looking for an English Ministry Pastor with a calling to serve in a multi-generation and multi-cultural, English-speaking congregation, located in North Burnaby.

Job Purpose:

The English Ministry (EM) pastor is responsible for the church's overall English Ministry (Grade 7 – adults). They monitor and develop the spiritual maturity of members through worship, discipleship, fellowship, and evangelism within the English Ministry. The EM pastor provides pastoral care and assists in planning the church direction and provides leadership and guidance in all areas of the church related to the English congregation.

The successful candidate will work closely with the senior pastor, children's pastor, youth pastor/worker, the pastoral and staff team, and is held accountable by the deacon board.

About BPGC:

Burnaby Pacific Grace Church (BPGC) began in 1990 as a Cantonese-speaking church reaching out to immigrating families from Hong Kong in the early 1990s. Sensing a need in the late 90s for the development of the next generation, the English congregation was established. Over the years, by God's grace, the church has continued to flourish with the English ministry consisting of 70+ regular attendees weekly. BPGC is affiliated with the British Columbia Conference of Mennonite Brethren Churches (BCMB).
